80 Yui Miyoshi / age7

Jury's Special Prize

Yoshinori Katayama select 「Delicious」 Prize

74 Aoi miyoshi/age2
The dynamic composition of colors looks powerful and vital. It's important that the foods look delicious. Eat a lot, Bring up your body and mind!
(Yoshinori Katayama / Vice-Principal of Utsui Jr.high school, City Shimonoseki)

Reiji Kohno select 「Powerful」 Prize

212 Seri Anno / age6

This postcard is powerful since its composition of colors and the power of flower blooming. I wonder how many petals are drawn. The careful work that he drew all of them is wonderful. Continue to draw!

(Reiji Kohno / Professor / Yamaguchi University, Faculty of Education Department of ART)

Mami Okamoto select
「Happy and Shining」 Prize

340 Toshiya Ishizu/age7

There are lots of lives in the sea and underground on this postcard. So vast world on this post card makes me excited. And the careful work is very good.

(Mami Okamoto / Curator / Yamaguchi Prefectural Museum of ART)

Jury's Special Prize

Jorge Mañes Rubio select 「Conceptual」 Prize

316 Yuki Ueno / age12

I really enjoyed this post card. The colour combination is very cool, and the composition is very abstract and contemporary. I'm attracted to the contrast between the geometrical and sharp edges together with the subtle gradients. Plus the "I love you" is such a positive message! LOVE IT!
(Artist / Jorge Mañes Rubio)

Cha Hyelim & Jason Hwang select
「Eraser」 Prize

200 Yuna Nichiyama / age13

While others expressed their idea by painting, this person expressed the idea of "dream" by erasing(painting over). There many words "dream" and the painter painted or erased over the letters but it becomes "dream" again. I find this "act of erasing" very interesting.
(Artist / Cha Hyelim & Translator • Photographer / Jason Hwang)

Minna Kurjenluoma select 「HAPPINES」 Prize

232 Yasuko Yamashita / age86

I chose this on because the more I look at it more I see. I see happy face and red cheeks, and a traditional Japanese broom behind. All in all it is just very happy painting, a kind of image I would like to send to my family in finland.
(Photographer • Artist / Minna Kurjenluoma)

Julien Grossmann select
「The aquatic life」 Prize

462 Miki Akiyama

A beautifully realized card, in which humor nicely blends in a meaningful perspective.
(Mixed Media Artist / Julien Grossmann)

Liu Chih-Hung select 「Wind blow」 Prize

389 Yamato Yamagata / age11

The card just used simple and easy materials, but makes me feeling strong! And you can feel the wind blow with the sunshine (or sunset) . Truly makes a connect with his hometown and life. Awesome!
(Artist / Liu Chih-Hung)

Tets Ohnari select
「3rd World」 賞

518 Uta Aoki / age8

The plane to the 3D. I was moved the work which attained new expression beyond just being a postcard.
(Sculptor / Tets Ohnari)
